

CUMEDIAE partners with the Spanish Embassy to celebrate inclusive dance

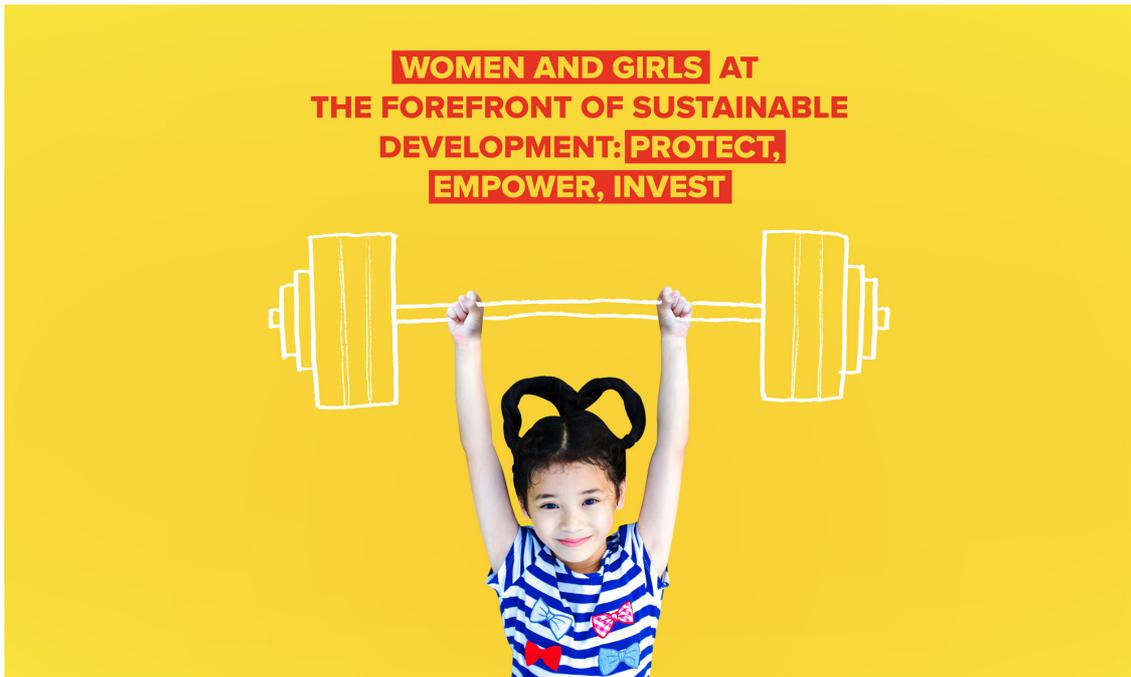

CUMEDIAE aisbl was honoured to organise an interactive session as part of Brussel's Dance Day (Dag Van de Dans) on April 30, at the Spanish Embassy. The intercultural dialogue (Dis)Abilities: a conversation about Inclusive Dance, between the choreographers Marta Wörner (Spain) and Jeroen Baeyens (Belgium), moderated by our Chairman Dr. Ignasi Guardans, highlighted factors that affect persons with disabilities in dance and the importance of taking advantage of different bodies and minds in the artistic field.

On April 23, our Communications and Projects Intern Isabeau Gerbelle, represented CUMEDIAE aisbl at the European Year of Cultural Heritage Forum 2018. Read the main insights of the conference in our blog:

"Presentations and discussions underlined that participatory governance should not only be seen as a mere monetary procedure, but as a trust-building process in a multidisciplinary perspective. Following this guideline, the key is understanding the landscape diversity in the EU and avoiding strict restrictions that are obstacles for flexibility."
